$5000 A YEAR GETS THORPE FOR GIANTS

boys had a lead of 2 points. The final Great Day for Equine Family Muggsy McGraw Says He Will Try to Make Pitcher of Indian.

> By International News Service. NEW YORK, Jan 31.—James Thorpe, the greatest living athlete, who has been disqualified as the world's amateur champion because he played professional baseball in 1909 and 1910, will sign a contract to play with the New York Giants in 1915. The Indian will receive Giants in 1915. The Indian will receive the biggest salary over paid to a player breaking into a major league, although he will probably do little more than warm the bench during his first season.

The exact amount stipulated in Thorpe's contract is not known, but it is not less than $5000.

Manager, McGraw conducted the negotiations for the Indian, spending most of last night in telegraphic conference with the athlete. This afternoon Thorpe wired "All O. K." to Scoretary Foster of the Giants. Thorpe wired that he would be in the Giants' Fifth avenue office tomorrow to sign his contract.

McGraw had to outbid five other managers to get Thorpe, Frank Bancroft, business manager of the Cincinnati Reds, bid $4500 and the next bid, McGraw's, won.

Thorpe will report to the Giants pitcher of the Indian, but if he shows no marks of a twirler he will be given a chance at first base and the outfield.

"A wonderful athelete like Thorpe," said McGraw today, "ought to have in him the makings of a great ball player. He has the muscle and the brain and it is up to me to locate the spot where he will be of the most value to the team."

James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union, announced tonight that he had received the challenge trophics won by Thorpe in the Olympic games last year and would send them tomorrow to Kristian Hellstrom, secretary of the Swedish Olympic committee. Sullivan said size that the all-round trophy won by Thorpe at Celtic Park last September had been sent to Carlisle with the Olympic trophics and was now in the possession of the A. A. U. It will go to Bredemus, formerly of Princeton university, who was second to Thorpe in the Celtic Park games.
